The Associate Members of the Association are those legal entities that are members of the Photonics 21 Board of Stakeholders not employing a Photonics 21 Executive Board Member nor having a Photonics 21 Executive Board Member representing it and not having entered into the Members agreement.

Art. 6 New Full Members

Legal entities that are the employer of a newly appointed Photonics 21 Executive Board Member or, in case an employment relation does not exist, that have a 21 Executive Board Member representing it will automatically be a Full Member of the Association and enter into the Members agreement.

Art. 6 bis New Associate Members

Legal entities that become member of the Photonics 21 Board of Stakeholders (BoS) not employing a Photonics 21 Executive Board Member nor having a Photonics 21 Executive Board Member representing it will automatically be an Associate Member of the Association.

Art. 7 Rights of the Full Members

Full Members of the Association will have the rights attributed to them by these Statutes, the By-Laws and decisions taken by the bodies of the Association in accordance with these Statutes and the By-Laws.

For the avoidance of doubt, Full Members shall only be entitled to execute the rights attributed to them by these Statutes, the By-Laws and decisions taken by the bodies of the Association in accordance with these Statutes and the By-Laws (for example but not limited to the right to vote at the General Assembly), provided that such Full Member comply or have complied with all financial obligations as determined by these Statutes, the By-Laws and decisions taken by the bodies of the Association.

Art. 7 bis Rights of the Associate Members

Associate Members of the Association will have the rights attributed to them by these Statutes, the By-Laws and decisions taken by the bodies of the Association in accordance with these Statutes and the By-Laws.

In particular the Associate Members of the Association will have the right to:

- participate in setting the SRIA;
- participate into Working Groups of the Photonics 21. Reference is made for this purpose to the Terms of Reference.

Associate Members shall not have the right to

- attend, speak and vote during the meeting of the General Assembly;
- propose a candidate for appointment as member of the Board of the Association by the General Assembly;

Art. 8 Obligations of the Full Members

The Full Members shall comply with the applicable law, these Statutes and the By-Laws and the decisions taken by the bodies of the Association in accordance with these Statutes and the By-Laws, in particular their financial obligations.

Art. 8 bis Obligations of the Associate Members

The Associate Members shall comply with the applicable law, these Statutes and the By-Laws and the decisions taken by the bodies of the Association in accordance with these Statutes and the By-Laws, in particular their financial obligations.

Art. 9 Termination of Full membership

The membership of any Full Member shall automatically terminate upon the expiry or termination for whatever reason of the mandate of Photonics 21 Executive Board Member it is employing or, in case such employment relation does not exist, it is representing.

In case the Photonics 21 BoS replaces a Photonics 21 Executive Board Member and provided that the Photonics 21 Executive Board Member is employed by the same legal entity (or its affiliate), there is no change in the membership of that legal entity.

A Full Member may withdraw as a Member with immediate effect upon written notice to the Chairperson.

Art. 9 bis Termination of Associate membership

The membership of any Associate Member shall automatically terminate upon termination for whatever reason of the membership of the Photonics 21 Board of Stakeholders..

An Associate Member may withdraw as a Member with immediate effect upon written notice to the Chairperson.

Art. 10 Exclusion

If any Member does not comply with these Statutes, the By-Laws, and/or any rules and regulations, issued pursuant to these Statutes or the By-Laws, or any decision of the bodies of the Association, or no longer fulfills the membership conditions, all hereinafter referred to as “default”, it can be excluded as a Member subject to the following:

a) In the event of a default which is irremediable or is not remedied within one month of the date of receipt of a written notice from the Chairperson, acting on the basis of a decision taken by the Board of the Association with at least 75% majority, not calculating the defaulting Member, such notice requiring that the default be remedied, the Board of the Association may decide to terminate the membership of the defaulting Member. For the avoidance of doubt, the termination of the Members agreement for a Member shall be considered as an irremediable default for the Member concerned.

In case that a member of the Board of the Association has a conflict of interest in any decision taking by the Board of the Association, such a member of the Board of the Association shall abstain from taking part in that decision.

b) Upon a decision to terminate membership taken in accordance with the previous paragraph, the Board of the Association, acting through its Chairperson, shall send a notice of decision of termination to the Member concerned, stating the reasons of such termination. Such decision may only become effective after the expiry of a period of 30 days during which the Member concerned shall have had the right to present its defense to the Board of the Association. At the expiry of the 30 days period, the Board of the Association, acting through its Chairperson, shall after having considered the defaulting Member's defense, if any, communicate in writing to the defaulting Member its confirmation of its decision of termination or its withdrawal of the decision of termination.

d) The membership of any Full Member that is not or no longer a party to the Members agreement, shall be terminated with a written notice from the Chairperson. Such notice of termination shall have immediate effect.

e) The membership of any Member that judicially has been declared insolvent or bankrupt can be terminated with a written notice from the Chairperson, acting on the basis of a decision taken by the Board of the Association. Such notice of termination shall have immediate effect.

Art. 11 Effects of termination of membership.

A Member who ceases to be a Member of the Association through withdrawal, exclusion or any other cause shall have no claim to the Association's assets; such Member shall remain liable for its Membership Fee, as far as applicable, in relation to the current financial year. Such termination shall not affect commitments entered into or liabilities incurred by such Member towards the Association prior to such withdrawal or termination.

Art. 12 Assets of the Association

The assets of the Association shall consist of:

- a) Subsidies;
- b) Membership Fees from the Full Members and Associate Members;
- c) Service fees;
- d) Donations, properly obtained in accordance with the applicable law;
- e) Any other assets or income received.

Part 3 GENERAL

ASSEMBLY

Art. 13 Powers of the General Assembly

The General Assembly shall have all powers not attributed to other bodies of the Association by law or by these Statutes, to achieve the purpose stated in Article 3. Amongst other things, the General Assembly shall have the powers to discuss and:

1. set Membership Fees, upon proposal of the Board of the Association;
2. approve or reject the annual budget, upon proposal of the Board of the Association;
3. approve or reject the annual accounts, upon proposal of the Board of the Association;
4. appoint and dismiss the members of the Board of the Association;
5. grant discharge to the members of the Board of the Association
6. appoint and dismiss the statutory auditors for the Association;
7. grant discharge to statutory auditors for the Association;
8. approve the PPP Contract and any amendments to the PPP Contract;
9. approve all agreements with commitments exceeding one year or exceeding a value of 50.000 €;
10. approve or reject the By-Laws of the Association, upon proposal of the Board of the Association;
11. Confirm the SRIA and any update thereof, upon proposal of the Board of the Association;
12. amend the Statutes, and amend the By-Laws, including decisions pertaining to the change of the seat of Association, if the language of the Statutes has to be changed as a result of the change of the seat;
13. dissolve the Association.

Art. 14 Composition of the General Assembly

The General Assembly shall be composed of the Full Members of the Association.

Each Full Member is represented by one delegate, hereinafter referred to as the “Full Member representative”. In case a Full Member representative cannot attend the General Assembly, the Full Member can choose to give proxy to a Full Member representative of another Full Member.

Provisions concerning the registration of Full Member representatives and alternates for Full Member representatives (if any) may be outlined in the By-Laws.

The meetings of the General Assembly shall be chaired by the Chairperson, or if the Chairperson is not available, another member of the Board of the Association. The Chairperson shall designate a secretary in charge of establishing the minutes of the meeting of the General Assembly. All members of the Board of the Association shall have the right to attend and speak at the meetings of the General Assembly and shall use their reasonable effort to attend such meetings.

Art. 15 Quorum, Majority

- (a) Quorum. Unless otherwise provided by these Statutes, the General Assembly can only take decisions if a majority of the Full Members is represented at the meeting.
If this condition is not met at a meeting, the Chairperson shall call another meeting pursuant to Article 16 with the same agenda within the following three months, which meeting shall constitute a quorum regardless of the number of Full Members represented, provided, however, that this has been clearly stated in the convocation of this second meeting.
- (b) Majority. Each Full Member shall have one vote in the General Assembly. For decisions of the General Assembly a simple majority the votes of the Full Members represented is required, unless stated otherwise in these Statutes.
- (c) For amendments to the Statutes, dissolution of the Association and approval or rejection of the By-Laws or amendments to the By-Laws, the provisions of Article 31 of these Statutes apply.

Art. 16 Meetings, Agenda, Resolutions

16.1 The General Assembly shall take decisions in ordinary or extraordinary meetings. At least one General Assembly shall be organized per year.

The Chairperson shall each year call an ordinary meeting of the General Assembly (the “annual meeting of the General Assembly”) with at least the following points on the agenda: (1) approval of annual accounts for the previous financial year, within a period of 6 months upon expiry of such financial year (2) appointment and dismissal of the members of the Board of the Association, if applicable (3) discharge to members of the Board of the Association for the execution of their mandate during the past financial year, (4) appointment of the statutory auditor and, if applicable, discharge to the statutory auditor for the execution of his mandate during the past financial year.. The Chairperson shall further call extraordinary meetings of the General Assembly whenever he or she deems this appropriate and is obligated to convene an extraordinary meeting upon written request to the Board of the Association from at least 20% of all Full Members.

16.2 Meetings shall be called by the Chairperson, acting on behalf of the Board of the Association, with at least two weeks prior written notice to every Full Member. The notification shall contain an agenda for the meeting. An item has to be included on the agenda of the General Assembly on the request from at least 10% of the Full Members. Full Members may put additional points on the agenda, provided that all Full Members are present and agree with such addition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the call for the first meeting of the General Assembly is not subject to the one-month prior written notice and the first meeting of the General Assembly may be called with three days prior written notice to every Full Member.

16.3 All General Assembly meetings can be held in physical form, or remote via electronic means of communication, including but not limited to telephone or video conference, provided that the form of the meeting is so announced in the written notice calling for the meeting.

16.3.1. In the event of a physical meeting, the meeting shall be held at the seat of the Association or such other venue as may be specified in the invitation.

16.3.2. Upon proposal of the Board of the Association, the General Assembly may be held and decisions in such meetings taken through any electronic means of communication, made available by the Association, provided that the Full Member representatives via the electronic means of communication can be identified, can participate directly to the deliberations held during the meeting and can exercise their voting right.

16.4. To the extent that the Board of the Association acting through its Chairperson has provided for this possibility in the invitation convening the meeting, each Full Member has the right to vote prior to the meeting of the General Assembly. To that effect, the notification shall contain a ballot setting forth the following:

- Identity of the Full Member and its Full Member representative;
- Signature of the Full Member representative and place and date of signature
- the number of voting rights of the respective Full Member
- the agenda of the meeting of the General Assembly and proposed resolutions
- the Full Member's voting on each resolution: YES/NO/ABSTAIN

In order to be valid, the ballot must be returned to the Chairperson at the latest 2 working days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly via e-mail: secretariat@photonics21.org.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, voting can also be done prior to the meeting via electronic means, in which case, details on the electronic voting system, complying with the legal requirements, shall be provided for in the notification.

16.5. The proceedings at every meeting of the General Assembly shall be laid down by the secretary or another person designated by the Chairperson in minutes. The opinion of the Chairperson expressed at the meeting of the General Assembly about the outcome of a vote shall be decisive.

The same shall apply to the contents of a resolution passed, in so far as a vote was taken about a proposal not laid down in writing.

16.6. The Full Members may unanimously take all decisions in writing, with the exception of amendments to Statutes.

16.7. The resolutions shall be registered and kept electronically at the disposal of all Full Members.

Part 4

The financial year begins on the first of January and ends on the thirty-first of December of each year. The first financial year of the Association shall run from the date of establishment of the Association until December 31, 2014.

Art. 28 Annual Accounts

Each year, the Board of the Association draws up the annual accounts and budget. The annual account, as well as the budget for the financial year following the financial year to which these annual accounts relate, must be submitted to the General Assembly for approval within six months after the closing date of the past financial year.

Art. 29 Audit

If required by law, the General Assembly appoints, upon proposal by the Board of the Association, one or more statutory auditors or any other person fulfilling the requirements imposed by law, who will be charged with the audit of the financial status of the Association, the annual accounts and the regularity of the Association's transactions reflected in these annual accounts ("the Audit"). The statutory auditor(s) will draw up a comprehensive written report (the 'supervision report'), which will be submitted to the annual General Assembly.

Part 7 BY-LAWS

Art. 30 Issuing of By-Laws

The General Assembly, upon proposal of the Board of the Association may adopt By- Laws compatible with the provisions of these Statutes, in order to ensure the functioning of the Association and its administration, containing but not limited to provisions regarding:

- Representation at meetings of the General Assembly;
- Representation at meetings of Board of the Association;
- Representation of the Association;
- delegation of task and/or authorisations to one or more members of the Board of the Association or third parties.

Part 8

AMENDMENTS, DISSOLUTION, EFFECTIVE DATE

Art. 31 Amendments to the Statutes, Adoption and Amendments to By-Laws Dissolution,

- (a) Amendments of Statutes, Dissolution. Decisions to amend the Statutes and/or to dissolve the Association require a majority of 75% of the Full Members represented in the General Assembly, while for these purposes, the General Assembly shall not be deemed to be properly convened unless three quarters of the Full Members are represented at the meeting.
- (b) Adoption and Amendments of By-Laws. Decisions to adopt the By-Laws and decisions on amendments of the By-Laws require a majority of 75% of the Full Members represented in the General Assembly, while for these purposes, the General Assembly shall not be deemed to be properly convened unless a simple majority of the Full Members are represented at the meeting.

- (c) Liquidation. In the event of a decision by the General Assembly to dissolve the Association, the General Assembly shall decide on the method of liquidation and will designate the liquidator or liquidators and determine their powers. The General Assembly will also decide upon the destination of Association 's funds remaining after liquidation, taking into consideration that the assets must be disposed of to the benefit of an organisation pursuing a similar and non-profit objective. All decisions shall be taken with the same quorum and majority requirements as are set forth in Article 31 (a).
- (d) In case a General Assembly is not properly convened for the resolutions referred to in paragraphs (a) (b) and (c) above, the Chairperson shall call another meeting with the same resolutions on the agenda, within the following three months, which meeting shall constitute a quorum regardless of the number of Full Members represented, provided, however, that this has been clearly stated in the convocation of this second meeting. The majority requirements shall be as set forth in Article 31.

Part 9

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 32 Miscellaneous

All matters which are not covered by the present Statutes, shall be settled in accordance with applicable law or, if not covered in applicable law, by a decision of the Board of the Association.

Art. 33 Settlement of disputes

- (a) All disputes or differences arising directly in connection with these Statutes, the By- Laws, and the decisions taken by the bodies of the Association which cannot be settled amicably, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the competent court of Brussels, Belgium. Such court shall have jurisdiction in the event of a counterclaim made by the defendant in any legal action.
- (b) The Members concerned and the Association may instead elect unanimously to seek to resolve by mediation any dispute or difference which cannot be settled amicably by them.
